

Insigneo Wealth Advisors, LLC.
Form ADV Part 3 – CRS (Customer Relationship Summary)
June 15, 2020

Item 1: Introduction

Insigneo Wealth Advisors, LLC (“we” or “the Adviser”) is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as an investment adviser.

Is An Investment Advisory Right For You?

It is important for you to understand the difference in fees and services between brokerage firms and investment advisers. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Item 2: Relationships and Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me? We offer investment advisory services to retail and institutional clients through discretionary and non-discretionary accounts pursuant to an Investment Advisory Agreement (“IAA”). The advice we provide is tailored to specific needs, goals, and objectives of each client. We also provide portfolio management and administrative services to client accounts, including investigating, analyzing, structuring and negotiating potential investments, monitoring the performance of investments and advising clients as to the disposition of investment opportunities. Additionally, we can recommend to certain clients that they authorize the active discretionary management of a portion of their assets by certain investment managers that are not affiliated with Adviser. From time to time, we may also recommend affiliated investment managers to certain clients based on their investment objectives, guidelines and risk profiles. In such cases, we will continue to render services to such clients and, in addition, monitor and review the performance of the third-party manager and the performance of the accounts that are being managed. We require a minimum account size of $100,000 to manage your account, although we reserve the right to waive it.

Conversation Starters Ask your financial professional

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service?
- Given my financial situation, should I choose a brokerage service? Should I choose both types of services? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications?
- What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3: Fees, Costs, Conflicts and Standard of Conduct

What fees will I pay? Fees for the management of accounts will be based upon a percentage of the total assets in the account. We typically receive an annual management fee, between 0.20% and 1.50%, based on the gross asset value of the account, although all rates are negotiable. Discretionary account clients are generally required to authorize us to directly debit management fees from client accounts quarterly. Fees for Family Wealth Services and other non-discretionary programs are billed to clients, although frequently clients pre-authorize their custodians to automatically deduct the fees from the client’s account upon receipt of an invoice, and to make payment to us. Depending on the custodian’s capacities to calculate advisory fees, fees for all programs are paid in advance or in arrears. In instances where we have an agreement where we are entitled to performance-based compensation, such compensation, if any, will be charged on a quarterly basis in arrears. Performance-based compensation will be based on Year End Performance (“YER”), which is calculated using Time Weighted Returns. The general range of the performance fee is between 5% and 15% of your account’s YER. Additionally, you will also incur certain charges imposed by custodians, brokers, third party investment and other third parties such as fees charged by managers, custodial fees, deferred sales charges, odd-lot differentials, transfer taxes, wire transfer and electronic fund fees, and other fees and taxes. We may also send brokerage orders through our affiliate, Insigneo Securities. Upon processing orders through Insigneo Securities and those orders are executed, your account will be charged a flat service fee reflected as a service charge on your confirmation. This charge is utilized in part to cover certain operational and execution costs incurred by the Insigneo Securities trading desk. Separately, we offer Wrap Fee Programs which provides clients with the ability to trade (invest) in certain investment products without incurring separate customary brokerage commissions and markups/markdowns charges. In this case, one fee is charged as a percentage of assets under management, which includes the cost of brokerage with IWA’s affiliate Insigneo Securities. The management fee for the Wrap Program ranges from 0.75% to 2.0% of the gross asset value of the account. A portion of the fees paid to us are used to cover the securities brokerage commissions and transactional costs attributed to the management of our clients' portfolios.

Insigneo Wealth Advisors, LLC.
Form ADV Part 3 – CRS (Customer Relationship Summary)
June 15, 2020

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have? When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they affect the recommendations, we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means: We may direct execution of client securities through Insigneo Securities, limiting the ability of commission rates to be negotiated on an arms' length basis with other execution venues. You may be able to obtain less expensive execution of securities transactions if a broker-dealer other than Insigneo Securities is used. Additionally, we are under common control with Insigneo Capital S.A., who acts as Investment Manager to certain private placement and/or pooled investment vehicles that may be offered to you. The directors/ beneficial owners of Insigneo Capital are also directors / beneficial owners of the Adviser and its affiliates. Insigneo Capital, its affiliates and their respective members, shareholders, officers and employees and their respective affiliates, may from time to time (1) incur expenses on behalf of the referenced offerings, (2) receive additional compensation for offering such investments, and (3) spend substantial time and attention on other business activities, among others. If performance fees are charged for your account, those fees can incentivize us to make more speculative investments than would be the case in the absence of such performance fee arrangement. We have policies and procedures to monitor the potential conflicts disclosed above. We render only disinterested and impartial advice to clients and our goal is to comply with fiduciary obligations. We are responsible for recommending investments based on your investment objectives and risk tolerance.

How do your financial professionals make money? Our financial professionals receive a percentage of the fee received by the Adviser based on assets under management, according to respective arrangements between the Adviser and each individual financial professional. Additionally, some of our supervised persons accept compensation for the sale of securities or other investment products and/or trailer fees, only in their individual capacities as registered representatives of our affiliated broker-dealer, Insigneo Securities. Supervised persons of the Adviser who are solely registered/associated with us do not receive such compensation with respect to accounts managed or advised by Adviser and you can find more information about this in our ADV.

Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me? Your fee does not vary based on the type of investments we select on your behalf. The more assets you have in the advisory account, including cash, the more you will pay us. We therefore have an incentive to increase the assets in your account in order to increase our fees. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. As your investment adviser, we will act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests.

Item 4: Disciplinary History

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history? We do not, as noted on Form ADV Part 1, Item 11. Please visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research us or our financial professionals.

Item 5: Additional Information

Where is additional information available? Seek out additional information. Visit Investor.gov for a free and simple search tool to research our firm and our financial professionals. To report a problem to the SEC, visit Investor.gov or call the SEC's toll-free investor assistance line at (800) 732-0330. If you have a problem with your investments, investment account or a financial professional, contact us in writing at 777 Brickell Avenue, Suite 1010. Miami, FL 33131. For additional information on our investment advisory services, see our Form ADV on IAPD or Investor.gov. Information regarding our firm can be found at adviserinfo.sec.gov. Or by calling our firm at 305-373-9000 for up-to-date information.

Who is the primary contact person at your firm? An investment adviser representative (portfolio manager) will be assigned your account. Who can you talk to if you have concerns about how this person is treating you? You may reach our Chief Compliance Officer, Beatriz Gutierrez-Junco, at 305-373-9000, Ext 1202, and your concerns will be addressed immediately.